

Van Scoy House -- Corner Main and Jefferson Sts.

Main St. opposite fork at Madison St. -- One of the best examples of the mantel frame doorway as it was typically used.

Abraham S. Vail House -- Madison St. near Sage St. -- This double house is six bays wide, with the entrance doors paired at the center. There are fine Sag Harbor mantel frame door enframements and the long porch has a vigorous twisted rope molding at the cornice.